Burnham-On-Sea Woodturning Club to hold Open Day this Saturday

Burnham-On-Sea Woodturning Club is holding a special Open Day this Saturday (September 23rd) when its work will be on display.

To celebrate the 30th Birthday of the Association of Woodturners of Great Britain (AWGB), the Burnham-On-Sea Woodturning Club is holding a free-to-enter Open Day.

Taking place at Burnham-On-Sea Methodist Church Hall in College Street, it will run from 10am until 4pm.

"Members of the public are invited to drop in and see what's involved in using a lathe to turn wood into beautiful objects, talk to members of the club, and view examples of their work," said a spokesman.

"Two turners will be there demonstrating and there will be a display of members' work."

The club is holding an open day for the public at the Methodist Church Hall, College Street, Burnham-on-sea, TA8 1AS on Saturday 23 September from 10:00 to 16:00

George and Ray will be demonstrating on two separate lathes during the day and there will be a display of members work. The event will be advertised in local papers and radio and there will be a number of invited guests along with representation from the AWGB.

Club members are requested to attend during the day to help talk to the public about the work that we do and to encourage interest from potential new members. Also, bring as many examples of work as possible, either on the day from 09:00 onwards or, if not able to attend, please deliver work to George before the day (suitably packaged and labelled).
